HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

DATES TO JULY 13.

New York News

NEW YORK, July 13.—A dispatch to the Telegram says the French cable was successfully landed this afternoon at St. Pierre, and the splice was made with the shore cable connecting with the land office there.

It is stated that an expedition of over 200 men with a large quantity of arms, etc., successfully sailed from some point on Long Island, this forenoon, for Cuba.

John Roach, in the employ of Harrington, a shoemaker on Staten Island, while in a fit of drunkenness entered the chamber of Emma a beautiful daughter of Harrington's, and cut her throat from ear to ear, causing death in a few moments. He then fled to his shop and cut his own throat, immediately expiring.

N. Calhoun, Vice President of the Toledo Rail road, has been arrested for violation of an injunction, but was released on bail.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

DUBLIN, July 12.—The Orange societies made strong demonstrations at Belfast and other points to day, but there were no disturbances of consequence reported.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A special to the Herald from Paris yesterday says the Emperor yields assent to the demands of the Corps Legislatif, the nature of which has been already stated. The change in the Ministry has not yet been announced. Reorganization of the Cabinet in a short time is certain. Throughout the whole of this crisis the Emperor has exercised his usual tact and shrewdness. He invited nearly all the deputies from the Corps Legislatif to dine, and a soiree at St. Cloud this week chatted playfully with many of them of all shades of opinion, giving expression to those piquant sayings so attractive to Frenchmen. For instance, to one by whom he had been taken by the button hole, he said "Ah! Mons. Buffet, you mean to take hold of my coat for fear I might pull back." To a group with several of whom he was conversing on the situation he said: "You begin to trust me like the old lion in the fable, trying to cut my nails and take my teeth out, and leave me nothing but my name, which is considered harmless." To another he said "The elections prove clearly I must choose between Empire and revolution—between neither can individualism be set up." To others he said "I will give full satisfaction to the aspirations of parties, but I dread to make concessions at the boundary prescribed in the constitution."

While the Emperor's conduct in the past few days is regarded as discrete, it is not likely to stop agitation for further concessions and reform.

LONDON, July 13.—The debate on the Irish Church Bill in the House of Lords, was resumed last night. Earl Hancey moved that the third reading of the bill be postponed three months. Earl Derby still opposed the bill, but favored amendments. The motion was withdrawn. Derby then gave notice that he should offer a protest against the bill. The bill was then read a third time and the amendments adopted, 180 to 82, omitting the clause permitting Bishops to retain their seats. A proviso was adopted, 121 to 114, providing for furnished residences and glebes for Catholic and Presbyterian clergy, and adopting the principles of concurrent endowment. The bill was then passed. Derby's protest was presented and the Lords adjourned after an exciting session.

THE JEWS.—We make the following extracts from a correspondence to the Circular:

"The long years of adversity have been years of humiliation and discipline; but they have also been years of culture, and now the Jews are among the foremost in the world's politics, finance, literature and art. Amidst the great and wonderful changes and revolutions of ages, they have remained nationally intact and persistent. They kept alive the spirit of science and intellectual culture through the long barbaric night of Europe, called the 'Dark Ages.' In the progress of what is called modern civilization, their position is now far on toward the front. Their position and influence is not so well known as it should be, because it is in a large degree hidden and dynamic. People think of them only as traders and financiers. But they are the 'news merchants of Europe,' and control the telegraph of the Continent. The greatest news agent of Europe and Great Britain, whose dispatches appear in every continental and British journal, is a Jew. Speaking editorially, the New York World in a recent issue says:

"One would be surprised to learn how many of the leading political journals in London, Paris, Vienna, Brussels, Berlin and other cities, are owned by Israelites, who thus exert a political influence, all the more powerful because it is unsuspected; and only those who know something of the inside life of the newspaper world in the United States as well as in Europe, have the faintest conception of the number of Jewish writers for the press, employed on the most influential organs of public opinions."

"As bearing upon this great event of the future—the reform movement is now in progress among the Israelites of this country and of Europe, is of great interest. It is not a direct movement toward Christianity now. It is a movement away from the bondage of worn-out forms and ceremonies, and toward freedom, progress and innovation, toward sympathy with the spirit and culture of the age. It abandons the hope of a future Messiah, but it clings to the idea that Israel is the Messiah nation. It recognizes the brotherhood of mankind; it sees in Jesus of Nazareth only a man—its adherents call Christianity "the noble daughter of our religion." It is enthusiastic for education, for the cultivation of unity among the Jews, and respect and good feeling toward the Gentiles. All this indicates the breaking up of the spiritual principality that has so long held them in bondage. It shows that forces behind the veil are at work. This enthusiasm for education and unity, for highest culture and brotherhood, is a bright augury of their future. Their sympathies tend toward social progress and reorganization."

The Death of Henry J. Raymond.

ITS CAUSES.

The sudden death of Mr. Raymond has called forth from the press of the whole land such comments appreciative and sympathetic as bear ample testimony to his position in the profession. It has been a fitting tribute to his rare gifts and his earnest labors. Apoplexy has been stated as the cause, and the fact of his maternal grandfather and mother having died from that disease has been given as corroborative evidence of his tendency, but still those who know him have felt there was not apparent in him such indications. The Stockholder of June 22d, quoted by the Evening Mail of the 25th, touches blindly upon the real cause—or, perhaps, relates a second accident. But, some two months since, Mr. Raymond met with a fall as he was about retiring for the night in his room at Washington, from the sudden tripping of a chair on which he had stepped to extinguish the light of the chandelier, which was so high as to be above his neck. He fell heavily, striking above his eye upon the knot of a table leg, and was found by his friend, who ran in from the next room, lying senseless on the floor. It was two days before he was able to be brought home, and a fortnight before he was able to leave his house. The discoloration has not entirely passed away at his death. He was urged by his friends to do no mental work for several weeks at least, but he gave too little heed to their warnings of danger, and kept at work. To others his escape from immediate death seemed at the time almost miraculous.

It may be that a premonitory attack of apoplexy was the cause of the fall, but the losing one's balance when reaching up standing on a chair is not a very uncommon thing, and that seems to be sufficient reason for the fall. It seems as if Mr. Raymond, whose health and habits were good, and whose mental machinery appeared to work without jar or friction, was destined for a long life of usefulness. He felt that any mental work immediately after that accident was doubly dangerous, but it may be that the injury then was irremediable, it was certainly very grave.—New York Mail.

The Ramie plant is now being introduced into the Southern States and into the Sandwich Islands. It is said to be a native of Java, and produces a long silky fiber, and is the basis of that elegant fabric known as glass cloth.

A Resurrection.

Andrew Johnson is probably the most obstinate individual who ever lived. He will not even stay decently buried in the tomb where all ex Presidents, with one exception, have hitherto been content to slumber after their departure from the White House, but insists upon returning to life and Washington, and according an interview to a Herald correspondent. Let us say a good word for Andrew Johnson. He was always ready, no matter how multifarious his cares and labors, to turn aside and bestow his own upon the Washington correspondents. When he occupied the White House, any journalist who was at a loss for an item had only to send his card up to Andrew, and he was immediately received and talked at for as many hours as he cared to waste in listening to the President's maunderings. They were not worth very much, it is true, but such as they were, they were always at the service of the public. Since Mr. Johnson returned to Tennessee he has not been visited by the correspondents, so feeling the necessity of unbosoming himself, he has revisited Washington, and, of course, met a Herald correspondent. The same felicity would have happened to him, had he been going to be hanged, and the public would have had his last speech and dying confession with the same accuracy and minuteness. We are glad to learn that his ex excellency looks "quite fresh and hearty," and has still the same cordiality and kindness that distinguished him so highly while an occupant of the White House. Being asked by the correspondent, who was thirsty for information, "What do they now think of this Administration down in Tennessee?" Andrew thought the question an improper one, and said the people would be very apt to attribute an unfavorable opinion from him as prompted by improper motives. Nevertheless, he kindly proceeded to tell what he thought of the Administration and especially of President Grant. We regret to say, and we have no doubt General Grant was sorely mortified when he read the Herald, that Mr. Johnson has but a poor opinion of his successor. "I know Grant thoroughly," he said

"I had ample opportunity to study him when I was President, and I am convinced he is the greatest farce that was ever thrust upon a people. Why the little fellow—excuse me for using the expression, but I can't help pitying him—the little fellow has nothing in him. He hasn't a single idea. He has no policy, no conception of what the country requires. He don't understand the philosophy of a single great question, and is completely lost in trying to understand his situation. He lied to me flagrantly, by God: but that even would have been tolerated were it the only instance, but it was not. He lied on many other occasions. I tell you, sir, Grant is nothing more than a bundle of petty spites, jealousies and resentments. And yet they say Grant is a second Washington. Only think of it, when you compare him with Washington or Jefferson where is he? Why he is so small you must put your finger on him. He, a little upstart, a coward, physically and intellectually, to be compared with Washington! Why, it makes me laugh. I have more pity for the man than contempt, for I have no spite against him. But I fear for the country when such a man is linked to the father of his country."

He continued to dissect poor Grant with refreshing vigor. "Physically and mentally he is a nonentity. Why, sir, his soul is so small that you could put it within the periphery of a hazel nut-shell, and it might float about a thousand years without knocking against the walls of the shell. That's the size of his soul." He has not got any policy, no standard, no creed, and how can he guide the people? He has no generalship, and is altogether "and infinitesimal creature," and upon the whole, the littest place for him is a corner grocery store. This is rather ahead of the World, and it is to be regretted Mr. Johnson's valuable services are not engaged for that vivacious sheet. Turning from the dissection of Grant, Mr. Johnson proceeded to discourse on the general situation, and here he thinks we are fast going to "the demnition bowwows." An aristocracy of bondholders is threatening us, and no country can be free that has a permanent national debt, so he adviser the press to pitch into the bondholders incontinently as our only means of salvation. But when asked what he specially regarded as the proper cure for this awful crisis, he was singularly frank, and we believe nearly every one will agree with him. "Why, sir, I sometimes wonder whether there be not some strange hallucination over me. I put my hand to my head and ask myself if I am sane. I find myself using arguments that were deemed sensible and irresistible by some of the greatest minds of the country, and yet they are unheeded, perhaps laughed at." His arguments, "close, cogent and logical," as he modestly termed them, he regrets to say, fell upon the public mind "like water on a duck's back," and all he said about the Constitution was not deemed worthy of "an answer other than laughter." And so he went on, and the correspondent summarily closes by saying: "The ex-President said a great many other things spicy and interesting, but as the hour is so late I am obliged to break off." And we may as well break off, too. We have given quite enough to show that Andrew Johnson is still the same he always was, and would make a lively candidate—during the campaign—for the Democrats in 1872.—Eastern Paper.

The Contrasts in Literary Reputations.

Every one, of course, has noticed the fact that certain English authors are better known and appreciated in New York than in London: certain American writers more talked of in London than in New York. The general public of England do not seem to me to appreciate the true position of Whittier and Lowell among American poets. The average Englishman knows hardly anything of any American poet but Longfellow, who receives, I venture to say, a far more wholesale and enthusiastic admiration in England than in his own country. Robert Buchanan, the Scotch poet lately, I have read, described "Evangeline" as a far finer poem than Goethe's "Hermann and Dorothea," a judgment which I presume and hope it would be impossible to get any American scholar and critic to indorse or even to consider seriously. On the other hand, it is well known that both the Brownings—certainly Mrs. Browning—found quicker and more cordial appreciation in America than in England. Lately, we in London have taken to discussing and debating over Walt Whitman with a warmth and interest which people in New York do not seem to manifest in regard to the author of "Leaves of Grass." Charles Dickens appears to me to have more devoted admirers among the best class of readers here than he has in his own country. Of course, it would be hardly possible for any man to be more popular and more successful than Dickens is in England but New York journals quote him and draw illustrations from him much more frequently than London papers do. I do not think any day has passed since first I came to this country, six or seven months ago, that I have not seen at least two or three allusions to Dickens in the leading articles of the daily papers—and I question whether, among critics standing as high in London as George William Curtis does here, Dickens could find the enthusiastic, the almost lyrical devotion of Curtis' admiration. Charles Reade, again, is more generally and warmly admired here than in England. I am wrong in supposing that the reverse is the case with regard to the authoress of "Romola" and "The Mill on the Floss." All American critics and all American readers of taste, have doubtless testified practically their recognition of the genius of this extraordinary woman; but there seems to me to be relatively less admiration for her in New York than in London. The general verdict of English criticism would, I feel no doubt, place George Eliot on a higher pedestal than Charles Dickens. We regard her as belonging to a higher school of art; as more nearly allied to the great immortals; few whose genius and fame transcend the fashion of the age and defy the caprice of public taste. So far as I have been able to observe, I do not think this is the opinion of American criticism.—Justin McCarthy in London.

A clerk in a New York mercantile establishment relates a conversation from which a sprightly youth in the same store came out second best. A poor boy came along with his machine, inquiring, "Any knives to grind?" "Don't think we have," replied the young gentleman, facetiously, "but can you sharpen wits?" "Yes, if you've got any," was the prompt response, leaving the interrogator at a loss to produce the article.

The Nude Woman.
MORE ABOUT THE ACTRESS OF THE PERIOD, BY THE LECTURER AND MAGAZINIST OF THE PERIOD.
From Packard's Monthly
When the Black Crook first presented its nude woman to the gaze of a crowded auditory, she was met with a gasp of astonishment at the effrontery which dared so much. Men actually grew pale at the boldness of the thing; a death like silence fell over the house, broken only by the clapping of a band of claqueurs around the outer aisles; but it passed; and in view of the fact that these women were French ballet dancers after all, they were tolerated.
By slow and almost imperceptible degrees this shame has grown, until to day the indecency of that exhibition is far surpassed. Those women were ballet dancers from France and Italy, and they represented in their nudity imps and demons. In silence they whirled about the stage; in silence trooped off. Some faint odor of ideality and poetry rested over them.
The Nude Woman of to day represents nothing but herself. She runs upon the stage giggling, trots down to the foot lights, winks at the audience, rattles from her tongue some stupid attempt at wit, some twaddling allusions to Sorosis, or Gen. Grant, or other subject prominent in the public eye, and is always peculiarly or emphatically herself—the woman, that is, whose name is on the bills in large letters, and who considers herself an object of admiration to the spectators.
The sort of ballet dancer who figured in the Black Crook is paralleled on the stage of every theater in this city, except one, at this time.
She no longer excites attention.
To create a proper and profitable sensation in the breast of man, she no longer suffices. Something bolder must be devised—something that shall utterly eclipse and outstrip her.
Hence, the Nude Woman of to-day—who outstrips her in the broadest sense. And as it were not enough that she should be allowed to go unhissed and un-rotten egged, she must be baptized with the honors of a profession for which Shakspeare wrote.
Managers recognize her as an actress, and pay her sums ranging from $50 to a $1,000 a week, according to her value in their eyes. Actresses who love virtue better than money, are driven into the street by her, and it becomes a grave and solemn question with hundreds of honorable women what they shall do to earn a livelihood.
I say it is nothing less than insult to the members of the dramatic profession that these nude women should be classed among actresses and hold possession of a majority of our theaters. Their place is in the concert saloons or the circus tents. Theaters are for artists.
A friend said to me the other day that it was inconsistency in me to find indecency in women exposing their persons, when men constantly do the same—that, as an honest exponent of woman's r

VIENNA, July 12.—The official Red Book, which has just made its appearance, says the Government has no reasons for keeping from the public its dealings with Prussia and other German States. The Diplomacy is interested in maintaining the existing statutes. It does not menace the general peace, but respects other powers and remains perfectly neutral in their affairs.

Baron Von Beust has replied to the recent circular of the Bavarian Prime Minister Prince Hohenlohe on the Ecumenical Council. He refuses to take part in the proposed conference of the Catholic Powers against the decision of the Council. He says he considers it time to take steps when the Council declares against the rights of States.

PARIS, July 12.—In the Corps Legislatif to day a message from the Emperor was presented and read by minister Rouher. The message states that the Emperor was resolved to convoke the Senate to consider the following questions, viz.: the right of the Corps Legislatif to elect its own officers; supplying of methods for presenting and examining amendments of laws; submission of commercial treaties to Corps; approval of the control of the Budget; abolition of any incompatibility which exists between parties holding at the same time a seat in the Corps and office in the Ministry, and an extension of the right of interpolation and similar questions with respect to the Senate here after to be considered. The Emperor believes these measures will meet all the demands. In conclusion he asks the Deputies to consider how often he has abandoned certain of his own prerogatives in favor of the public interest for those already granted which form integral portions of the empire. They ought to leave intact those rights which have been expicitly confided to him by the people, and which are essential conditions of power as safeguards to order and society. The message announces no change in the Ministry. The reforms which it proposes are generally considered to amount to a concession, bona fide, of ministerial responsibility as an element of the executive government.

INSURE IN THE NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!

WHY?

BECAUSE you get your first DIVIDEND to HELP PAY YOUR SECOND PREMIUM. You do not have to wait 3 or 4 years for the distributions.

BECAUSE we have NO STOCKHOLDERS to draw from 12 to 25 per cent on imaginary CAPITAL STOCK (personal promises to pay) amounting from $30,000 to $50,000 annually.

Because the NEW ENGLAND is a Mutual and is a Home Company in all our broad and beautiful country; an American Institution—the first one formed on the PURELY MUTUAL plan on this Continent.

BESIDES it is the only Company offering you the protection of the Massachusetts Law.

For example. A person aged 35, insures for $1,000, pays $26 50, say on the 1st July, 1869. Were he to die on the 4th July, 1871, 2 years and 3 days after, his policy would be paid. Thus.

Say amount Policy is.....	$1,000 00
Deduct two annual payments he has not paid, $26 50 each, and interest	54 04
The family would receive.....	945 96

No Snap Judgment here. This is what we call EQUITABLE and MUTUAL.

Five annual payments keep the Policy in force 10 years and 66 days.

Policies on which Note has been given for one-third of the Premiums.

Five payments will continue in force nearly five years after payments have ceased.

On ENDOWMENT POLICY the time is prolonged in proportion to the amount paid.

HYGEIAN HOME
WATER CURE,

637 California Street,

Opp. St. Mary's Cathedral, bet. Kearny & Dupont Sts.,

SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH

WOULD RESPECTFULLY INFORM HIS FORMER patrons, and all who desire the professional services of a Hygienic Physician that he has just returned from the East, after an absence of four months, during which time he has visited nearly all the Water Cures in the Eastern States, and the various Hygienic Establishments of New York City, Boston and Philadelphia; and with this new experience feels more fully prepared than ever to meet all the demands that invalids may justly claim who desire to be cured by this rational form of medication.

In January last DR SMITH purchased the extensive lot corner of Quincy and California streets, with the buildings thereon, which he has fitted up at great expense, for the accommodation of PATIENTS and BOARDERS, with a greater variety of baths for the cure of DISEASE as well as popular bathing than is to be found in any Water Cure in the United States.

HYGEIAN HOME is the only Regular Water Cure in San Francisco, and by far the most extensive and complete Hygienic Institute on the Pacific Coast.

And we offer to Ministers, Teachers, Lawyers, Miners, Merchants, Mechanics, Farmers, and all worthy persons, especially those who have tried drugs faithfully without being restored, and who are still desirous of regaining health by this rational system of medicine, the hospitalities of our Hygienic Home and Cure. Young men who have become debilitated or lost their health by excessive toil, exposure or enervating habits, contracted through ignorance of physical laws, may with us find more of the encouragement they need, and means that will restore them to health, than elsewhere in California.

There is not one man in twenty suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, or Diseased Liver, Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Drug or Secondary Diseases, Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Impotency or Nervous Debility, Weak or Inflamed Eyes, Bronchical and Catarrhal Affections, Disease of the Heart, Lungs, Kidneys, Constipation, Paralysis, Scrofula, Piles, Inflammation of the Bowels, Chronic and Acute Diarrhea, Stiff Joints, Oak Poisoning, Weak Backs, Hip Disease, Salt Rheum and many other Diseases common to Men and Women, that cannot be permanently cured in from two to six weeks by Water Cure and Hygienic treatment. Not only will they get cured, but they can learn how to keep well when they go to their mountain homes, their mines, their farms, their stores, and all this for one-half what it would cost to take drugs.

Terms $20, by the single week, or $60 for four weeks. Board, Room and Treatment (in all ordinary cases).

N. B.—All suffering from cutaneous diseases are treated in separate baths, which are never used by persons bathing for cleanliness. The greatest care and neatness is observed in this respect. No contagious diseases, such as Small Pox and Ship Fever, treated in the Institution.

We have a separate Medical Department for Ladies, which is attended by a thoroughly competent woman, while the private residence of DR. SMITH, which is connected with the Home, is chiefly devoted to the accommodation of ladies desiring Hygienic medical treatment.

We have for the past ten years made the treatment of female diseases a specialty, and have treated a great number of females, both in the Institute and in their private residences in this city, Sacramento and Oakland, who were suffering from Displacements, Prolapsis Uteri, Uterine Hemorrhage, Sterility, Curvatures of the Spine, Inflammations, Congestions, and ALL NERVOUS DISEASES, together with diseases common to all.

The ease and rapidity with which the varied diseases and conditions above mentioned have been overcome, especially in the vicinity of the Bay, fully warrant us in declaring that there is not one female in a hundred who is thus afflicted but that can be made well and happy in from three to six weeks by thorough Hydropathic and Hygienic treatment at our Cure. From all who have come to us and been treated, we have yet to learn a single regret from Husband or Wife of the time, means or trouble they expended in HYGIENIC MEDICATION, for they not only get well, but learn how to keep well.

Terms for Ladies, $20 a week, or $100 for six weeks (Board, Room and treatment).

DR. SMITH gives FREE Lectures to his patients every Wednesday evening, and also Lectures before the Ladies' Hygienic Society the first Wednesday in each month.

A SHORT PRACTICAL CATECHISM.—Having a belief in common with the writer of the following letter, that exaggeration and too much bragging, however well intended, are not the best means of promoting the interests of our country, we publish the communication

PORTLAND, July 13, 1869.

Editor Herald—DEAR SIR: Allow me to review the assertions made this morning in your leader "Arrived and Expected," and ask you how you propose to establish their truth? The Nicolson pavement and thick plank sidewalks are admitted, but how about "twelve stores as fine as any on Broadway, New York?" What store in Portland will compare favorably with even those on the fashionable streets of San Francisco, to say nothing of New York? Wherein also admitted "As elegant cook-houses as any in the West?" What schoolhouse here of half the size, taste, elegance or expense of the magnificent Lincoln School of San Francisco? What constitutes a "splendid theatre?" Do not large cities contain many second or third class theatres that would put this Fine to the blush? What reservoirs supply "pure mountain water? Does not our city water come from the river in front of the city? and if river water at this distance from its source is "mountain" water, then it undoubtedly continues so until its current mingles with the sea. Where is our "splendid" hotel? Our hotels are good, just passable for a western town of the size of Portland, but what one of them, so far from being "splendid" would compare with even a third class house of large cities? Where are the "steam ferries?" Mind you, the plural. I suppose you'll answer that by an "erratum for ferries read ferry." Where—but nonsense, look over that article. It would read well by an Atlantic firesides, thousands of miles from Portland, where the reader did not know and care whether we have these luxuries here or whether they exist only in the fertile imagination of a Portland editor, but please remember that the Ways and Means Committee are now here and can see for themselves. We have here a fine city, one in which I in common with other citizens, take a just pride. We have excellent streets, beautiful brick buildings and a few fine stores and residences, with improvements generally that place our Oregon metropolis far ahead of most towns of her limited population; but there are some things in which we are sadly deficient, and it is not well to institute a close inspection of those matters by claiming in these particular respects to be equal to the large cities of our country.

CHAS. A. GARDNER.

TESTIMONIAL.—We publish the following testimonial at the request of the gentlemen whose names are attached:

"The gentlemen connected with the reconnoissance of the proposed line of the North Pacific Railroad, and invited guests, returning from their trip around Puget Sound, desire to publicly thank John C Ainsworth, the representative of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, for the generous use of their elegant steamer, Wilson G. Hunt, and for the happiness they have enjoyed in seeing, under his auspices, the marvelous beauty and wealth of this wonderful body of water, and therefore

Resolved, That we are thankful for the loan of the Wilson G. Hunt, and will carry home with us a sense of a public spirited generosity which, rare at the East, is in harmony with the greatness of nature and man in Oregon

Resolved, That the pleasure derived from our trip through the most beautiful inland sea in our country has been enhanced by the generous care and attention of our host, Mr. Ainsworth, and of the officers of his steamer, and that in our recollections of Puget Sound their names and their kindness will forever be blended

Resolved, That yesterday and to-day we sailed through the many gateways of the ripples of commerce between the western sides of the Pacific ocean, and seen the vast hundred-armed harbor where the trade of the American Pacific Slope is to be enthroned—and that we hope that in the near future when the ships of two worlds will crowd Puget Sound, high and prosperous may wave the standard of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company.

TRAIN TO BROOKS.—We give place to the following characteristic blast from George Francis Train:

PORTLAND, July 13th—4 P. M.

Hon. James Brooks, Duke of the Columbia:—Our British Columbia and Puget Sound party of Capt. Ainsworth, (Oregon Steam Navigation Company,) just returned, send greetings to the Congressional party of Mr. Reed: The Oregonian excursionists of the Pacific (Corbett, Caufield, Wilkeson, Roberts, Moorhead, Johnson, Claxton, Dennison, Evans, Moore, Underwood and Bemis) shake hands with the Congressional tourists of the Atlantic. While we have been invading panic-stricken Victoria, exploring the Mediterranean of the Northwest, staging through a wilderness on fire boating the Cowlitz with Indian canoes, you have been floating up the Mississippi of Oregon, have seen the enterprise of a single firm in covering the road to the gold mines with steamers and railroads, have witnessed the magnificent forests, fisheries and farms of Oregon, and have no doubt to-day lunched your salmon at Celilo. The presence of so many Oregonians and the expected visit of Seward places the State on the regular route of the tourists. As Sitka is to Portland, so Portland has been to California; but commerce show that California can no longer checkmate the Northern Pacific Railroad, nor the line from Utah to the Columbia, or otherwise leave Oregon out in the cold. The Northern Pacific Railway Commission present their compliments to Messrs. Brooks, Kelly, Hooper, Blair, Maynard, McCarthy, Allison, Julian, Axtell, &c., and hope they will visit the line of the North, that, by laying nine hundred miles of rail, connects the two oceans on a parallel never blocked with snow and straight as an arrow to China. And not the least of this distinguished party, this deponent (Gen. Grant's successor) holds the man who carried the Pacific Railway bill against all odds, to his pa[illegible] of taking a tour round the world in ninety days via Pacific, Asia, Africa and Europe, back to New York. God save the commonwealths of the Pacific.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN

"EXTRA" EXTRAORDINARY.—We received last evening a copy of the Seattle Intelligencer Extra, which contains accounts of the doings and sayings of George Francis Train and the North Pacific Railroad excursionists on Puget Sound and to Victoria, with numerous epigrams by Train, dispatches sent by Train, etc., etc. These matters are all duly set out with display letter, exclamation points, italics, and all that sort of thing. We have not room for more than a brief extract or two:

"We arrived in Victoria on Saturday, July 10th, at one A. M., with the guns of the war ship, brought over from Esquimalt during the night, pointed at our stewers, ready for action. The fright was fearful—police, troops, marines, volunteers and coast guards, were all ordered out, and even at this distance from the scene, 'Banquo's Ghost will not down.'"

We suspect the above to be pure romance, but the bit is juicy. The following is probably reliable:

"The party is due at Portland, the 13th July, where Mr. Train lectures for the benefit of the Fenians and the Emmet Guard, and starts for the salmon fishing at Celilo, lecturing on Wednesday night, the 14th, at the Dalles, and immediately returning to Newport, Rhode Island, via the Willamette valley, San Francisco, Nevada, Salt Lake City, Omaha and Chicago—lecturing all along the route, and arriving on the Atlantic shore in September.

"The railroad party continue their route up the Columbia, through Idaho, Montana, and overland to the Missouri and Lake Superior."

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.—Proceedings of yesterday:

G. C. Holmes vs. T. J. Holmes et al in equity—hearing on exceptions to answer set for Tuesday, the 20th inst. Trimble and Shattuck for complainants, Thayer for defendants.

W. W. Thayer admitted to the bar of this Court.

J. B. Fitch vs. Jonathan Moorest al—action to recover real property—case continued to next term.

John Catlin, Assignee of estate of John A. Daly vs. William Currier—argument of counsel upon questions of law arising upon the finding of facts. Whalley and Fechheimer for plaintiff; Stout and Reed for defendant.

TIME OF HOLDING THE STATE FAIR.—Every year there is more or less of inquiry and dispute among our people about the time of holding the State Fair. This is usually consequent upon changes made by the Board of Managers. This year the "list of premiums," published by A. L. Stinson, Printer for the Society, states the time, Sept. 20th to 25th inclusive. One of the Salem papers—the Farmer, we think—a few days since stated the time October 11th. We have published both statements; but which is right? Will the President, Secretary or Printer inform us, so that there need be no further doubt about the matter.

OREGON FLOUR IN NEW YORK.—Advices from New York, June 30th, are quite encouraging in regard to Oregon flour. Mr. Charles Dimon, the agent for Imperial, quotes that brand at the head of the market, and writes that it leads all other brands of the Pacific coast, notwithstanding the efforts and expedients of the other millers and their agents. In view of the short crop prospects in several of the wheat growing countries, the price of flour is likely to be high enough at New York to warrant shipment from Oregon, especially so if it can be shipped direct.

EXCURSION OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.—The members of the Committee of Ways and Means, accompanied by a number of Portland people, went up to the Dalles yesterday. In the afternoon just after their arrival at the Dalles, we received the following telegram:

DALLES, July 13, 1869.

OREGONIAN:—Arrived all O. K. Visitors are in ecstacies over our Columbia river scenery. Promises their aid and support to us for railroads, custom houses, etc.

A. M. LORYEA.

ANOTHER DISPATCH—THE LATEST.—The exploits of George Francis Train, in salmon catching, have been eclipsed by the Congressional Committee, as will be seen by the following dispatch received at eight o'clock last evening:

DALLES, July 13, 1869—7 30, P. M.

To the OREGONIAN—Train's salmoning outdone. Maynard, three dozen salmon; Julian, eleven large and one small; Hooper, one whale. Brooks, one juvenile, Kelly, one catfish, Bassett, one drink. Balance [illegible] do do.

A. M. LORYEA.

MORE SMUGGLING DISCOVERED.—The discovery of smuggled opium on board the bark Onward has been followed by a further discovery of smuggled opium, tobacco, indigo and opium pipes, secreted in the bottoms of tea chests. The chests when opened appeared on top to be all right; but further investigation proved that they were partly filled with the smuggled goods and then filled with merchantable tea. As in the case of the formerly discovered smuggled goods, these packages all belonged to passengers

HUNTING AND TROTTING.—Mr. Quinby, of the Exchange Hotel, with a party of four or five, started yesterday for the Cascade mountains, by team, for the purpose of hunting and fishing for a couple of weeks. We envy them their fun

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN AT THE PHILHARMONIC HALL.—Mr. Train reached the city yesterday afternoon at five from Puget Sound, bringing with him the Northern Pacific Railroad Commissioners and others, including Capt. Ainsworth and a excursion party. We attended the lecture at the Philharmonic last night was very largely attended, the audience being kept up to the boiling point of enthusiasm for almost three hours. His description of his servant in Victoria brought down the house. Mr. Train says that with fifty picked men from Portland he could have captured the city. All were trembling as with the palsy. The Governor General left for parts unknown the day before. Learning that the great American letter was on the way Mr. Train's private secretary went ashore at half past four on the morning and found every one on the qui vive, and at parting with that despard's character, George Francis Train remarked, I have a return ticket in the Hart. Mr. Train went ashore at eight, o'clock and registered at the Ansnot an House where he was called upon by many citizens. Governor Musgrave, whom were the editors of the Evening News and Colonist, etc. Mr. T would have lectured in the theater had the steamer stopped long enough to permit of his doing so. Every one seemed anxious to see and hear him.

Mr. Train's epigrams on the Oregon forests on fire en route to Victoria," and his raid upon British Columbia were received with cheers. He leaves for the Dalles at five o'clock this morning where he lectures to night, returning in time to meet his engagement at Salem on Saturday, thence he proceeds overland to San Francisco, lecturing at the principal points along the line. After another series of lectures in San Francisco he makes a tour through the Yosemite valley, then strikes through Nevada to Salt Lake City, Omaha, Chicago, Buffalo, Albany, thence to his elegant new summer palace at Newport, R. I., where he will spend the month of September and then make a tour through the southern cities, talking to the colored people, his posters to read "No white men admitted." After his trip through the South he will start with his party of fifteen on his tour around the world to ninety days, in October.

Mr. Train received the following from Mr. S. G. Reed, who has charge of the Ways and Means Congressional Committee, during his lecture last night, Mr. Train at the same time stating that he would give them a trial at salmon Fishing this afternoon. We wish him God speed

DALLES, Oregon, July 13, 1869.

GEO. FRANCIS TRAIN—Just returned from Umatilla. Must duplicate your trip or you will be declared defeated. The Ways and Means Committee are ahead of anything so far in the salmon line. S. G. REED.

VANCOUVER SEMINARY.—The next term of the Vancouver Seminary will begin August 23d, and end November 5th, the last two days of the term to be devoted to quarterly examination. In connection with this school is a seminary cabinet, and a "Young Men's Literary Society," both lately established. At the last term as shown by the catalogue, there was one graduate, five students in the Senior class; seven in the Middle class, sixteen in the Junior; twenty-eight in the preparatory, and thirty in the Primary.

MILITARY ORDER.—The following is the text of an order issued from Headquarters of the Department of the Columbia, July 12th:

General Orders, No. 22.—Until further orders, Major A. J. Dallas, 23d Infantry, will perform the duties of the Acting Assistant Inspector General of the Department.

By command of Bvt Maj. Gen. George Crook.

A. H. NICKERSON,
Capt 23d U S Inf, A. D. C. and A. A. A. Gen

HEARING BEFORE U. S. COMMISSIONER.—During Monday and yesterday the case of the United States vs B. L. Hatch, Master of bark North Star, was on hearing before U. S. Commissioner, Ralph Wilcox. This was a complaint entered against the Master by a seaman, charging an assault with a dangerous weapon, with intent to kill. The defendant, after full hearing of all the facts, was discharged.

THE "ORIFLAMME."—The Commercial learns that this steamship has been "chartered" to take the Committee of Ways and Means to the Sound. She has not been "chartered" at all, but Mr Holladay with his accustomed liberality has placed her at the disposal of the guests for the trip. This is the way in which an enterprising and public spirited man does up things.

GOING EAST.—Mr. J. N. Dolph is intending to start early next week for the Atlantic States, and advertises that he will attend to any legal business that may be entrusted to him. This will be a good opportunity for those who may have need of an agent's services at Washington or elsewhere in the Atlantic States.

TO LEAVE.—The bark Almatia will to-day drop down to St. Johns and finish her cargo with barrel staves from the factory at that place.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The several public schools of this city will begin their next term on Monday, August twenty-third

SALOON CHANGED HANDS.—Tom Moffett has purchased the Magnolia Saloon of Wm. O. Bruen.

The New York Tribune says:

A remarkable instance of Mr. Raymond's working ability occurred on the occasion of the death of Daniel Webster, a statesman for whom he had the greatest admiration. The news of Mr. W.'s death reached here on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Raymond wrote an admirable biography, which appeared in Monday's paper, covering twenty six columns of the Times, and in addition he wrote three columns of editorial on the same subject. Of this extraordinary biography Mr. Raymond wrote sixteen columns without stopping a moment for rest. As a feat of editorial labor we doubt its ever having been equaled.

A SERENADE.—I serenaded Sophia once when she was but a tender lass, and the greeting which I received for my traveling musical convention has never been fully appreciated by me. It was the witching hour of one A. M., when church yards yawn. Everything was hushed and stillness reigned profound. I commenced to sing, "I bring a little flower to thee." Sophia was hanging out of the window, and it was through her solicitation that I endeavored to warble this cussed piece, "I bring a little flower to thee." Sophia's tyrannical pap stuck his head out of the window, and in a voice of thunder roared, "Well, just set it on the door step, and don't make so much fuss about the cussed little flower."

G. F. TRAIN preaches but does not always practice—for he patronized the Oregon Dispensary and used our medicines to cure his hands that caught those large Salmon. Since his lectures on Doctors and Drug Stores, we have had an unprecedented run for our numerous remedies, toilet articles, etc., etc. It has been said that Mr Train was induced by us to deliver that lecture, but we assure our numerous patrons that we do not use such means to obtain patronage. We do the largest trade because our Druggists are the most competent and our medicines and goods are fresh, pure and cheap.

EXTRA COAT OF SILVER!

THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS.

A mark on the back of the handle heel of the end and points of bowls and cross back of the handle at the end points of tines of forks as illustrated in cut.

This mode of Electro Plating greatly supercedes the old way of plating. The great advantage will be readily seen, as spoons and forks in ways wear through on these exposed points, while the plate is yet good on other parts of the article. This new process will add THREE TIMES TO THE DURABILITY of goods so plated.

Knives, forks and spoons stamped "1847 ROGERS BROTHERS A1 XII," are Electro Plated by the new Patented Process

We have now been before the public since 1852, manufacturing ELECTRO-PLATED GOODS, which have stood the most severe tests of wear in hotels, steamers and private families, and have given universal satisfaction supplying, as it does, all of the advantages of silver in durability and beauty. We wish to call particular attention to the hardness and firmness of our White Metal, which exceeds anything of the kind made in this country. All goods plated on this metal bear our trade mark, and the plating is warranted THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS.

Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1868, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The sooner such guarantees cease to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

"By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not secured to the Policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself."

Port Charges.

A writer in a commercial journal shows that upon a ship of 1,000 tons the charges of entering at Boston are $570, at New York $76, and at New Orleans $2,555. By excessive port charges the commerce of New Orleans is seriously crippled. The principal items are pilotage and towages.

At present it costs a vessel of 500 to 600 tons about $700 to enter the Columbia river, ascend to Portland with cargo and depart; while the charges upon a ship of 1,000 tons amount to about double this sum. A vessel of 500 tons, loaded, will draw probably 16 feet. The pilotage across the bar at $12 per foot amounts to $192. Pilotage up the river to this city is $4 per foot more, amounting to $64. Towage costs about $200. Here we have $456 for pilotage and towage on a 600 ton vessel to Portland. Descending the river, the charges are probably somewhat less; but they are considerable enough to make the whole cost to a vessel of this class not less than $700. Take a ship of $1,000 tons. Supposing that she draws 20 feet with cargo, pilotage over the bar is $240, and to Portland $80 more. Towage to this city would be at least $400, and has amounted on vessels of this class to $500. But placing it at $400, the aggregate of these figures would be $720. Towage and pilotage down the river, tonnage duties at the Custom House and pilotage out to sea would carry these figures up to $1,400 or $1,500. This is $1,000 less than the port charges at New Orleans; but the charges there are paid in currency while they are paid here in gold, which reduces this difference, and, with other items not enumerated, brings our port charges nearly up to those of New Orleans.

Now we ought not to be content with a knowledge that our port charges are no greater than those of the principal commercial city of the South. New Orleans is so situated that she thrives greatly in spite of the disadvantages under which she labors in this regard. A great commerce must necessarily pass through her doors. With us the situation is different. We are but just making a beginning to establish here a center of trade. It should be the study of our State and city to offer every facility and advantage to our incipient commerce. The last Legislature passed an act reducing pilotage at the mouth of the Columbia river, but for some reason the act is neither observed nor enforced. Then again, it is worth while to see if a reduction cannot be effected in New York. Our steamboat men, who assuredly have an interest in the growth of trade and the progress of the country might consider this point. An effort should be made on all sides to diminish such of the port charges as are under our own control to the lowest figures consistent with legitimate business. It should not cost so much to enter vessels here as at New Orleans. It is true that Portland is about as far from the sea as is that city; but there is a greater depth of water and a better and safer entrance at the mouth of the Columbia than at the mouth of the Mississippi. The principal reason why the charges are so great at New Orleans is that the steam tugs have combined to keep up the prices. What we want on the Columbia river is steam tugs which will go outside, lay hold of ships and push them up to Portland without subjecting them to the various and vexatious delays now experienced. We must get out of the old track and go faster. There is no doubt but all the interests of our State have suffered by the high charges imposed upon vessels coming into the Columbia river. This river must always be the principal channel for the commerce of Oregon, and it is especially the interest of Portland to have this channel as free and cheap as possible.

In General.

Bancroft & Co., of San Francisco, have issued a "Guide" for travelers in the Pacific States, which appears to us, so far as we have examined it, to be unusually correct. Routes of travel in Oregon are detailed with general accuracy and a concise description of most of our towns is given.

The California press speaks out with emphasis against the utterly absurd and mischievous attempt of some of the Trade Unions to prevent boys from learning trades and engaging in mechanical occupations. The Bulletin pointedly says that "this condition of things cannot be permitted; for what is there for boys to do if they are shut out from such a large number of employments."

In another column will be found an important decision upon the rights of creditors who have received preferences, to share in the distribution of estates in bankruptcy. Any preference in the payment or security of any creditor's demand, taken with knowledge of the insolvency of the debtor, and within six months before a petition for adjudication of bankruptcy against the debtor, makes the creditor receiving such preference liable to an action for the value of the preference taken and deprives him of all participation in the dividends of the estate.

Alluding to the gross and brutal outrages practised and repeated upon the Chinese in California, the Alta says such conduct is a disgrace to the State and to civilization. "It is fortunate for us," says that paper, "that there is a spirit abroad which will not much longer tolerate these outrages. It is very evident from the tone of leading men everywhere that if we do not do justice to these people, a higher power will before long take that matter entirely out of our hands. If our legislature will not act the Congress of the United States will."

In most of the British American Provinces the sentiment demanding annexation to the United States is clearly growing stronger. The anti-American newspaper press cannot disguise the fact that the public sentiment is rapidly ripening for annexation, and their denials on the subject are so weak as to amount almost to admissions of what they seek to deny. Several newspapers have been bold enough to discuss the subject openly, and since then the people have come to talk very plainly in favor of "reconstruction." There is a steady stream of emigration to the United States, and none are immigrating from the States to the Provinces.

Washington dispatches give information that, as an evidence of the earnestness of the Government in the matter of retrenchment and economy in the public expenditure, it can be stated that the new fiscal year will begin with a reduction in the army expenditure of $20,000,000 per annum, caused by the reduction of the force by the number of twenty thousand men. The number of civilian employes of the army, which on the first of March last was 10,000, has been reduced to 4,000, thus saving $6,000,000 per annum from that source, or altogether a reduction of $26,000,000 in the army expenditure for the next year is already a fact well accomplished.

Most of our exchanges are beating a great deal to say on the eight-hour law. This law is simply a delusion. At first glance it may appear that two hours' leisure time each day will be gained, if nothing more; and that, as this is demanded for social improvement, so much gain will be something. But this is an entirely erroneous conclusion. For the same cause that reduces the purchasing power of the working-man's money will also reduce the interval devoted to recreation. In other words, as the wages he receives for eight hours' work will only buy eight-tenths as much as formerly, he will be obliged to make up the deficiency by additional service or be contented with only eight-tenths of the remuneration formerly enjoyed. This proposition seems self-evident. The alternative is simply more work or less food, raiment, fuel and other necessaries. The whole case would be very plain if it were not obscured by demagogues for political purposes.

OREGON.

Marcus F. Cole has been appointed Postmaster at Baker City.

Three-tenths of an inch of rain fell in Salem on Saturday night.

The forests in nearly all parts of the State are on fire. In Southern Oregon the smoke is unusually oppressive.

J. H. Upton, who started the Yamhill Courier and Dallas Signal, will commence the publication of a Democratic weekly at Corvallis soon.

The Farmer has the following item: The editor of the Albany Register, who has been married but a short time, confesses to "a general feeling of goneinativeness."

A letter from the "capital of Polk county" to the Sentinel states that that rural village "boasts of eleven cunning limbs of the law." The letter don't state what they do for a living.

The Sentinel says that the owners of the Malachi quartz ledge on Lightning Gulch, in Josephine, have struck exceedingly rich pay and expect to realize a handsome profit this summer.

THE West.

Rumors are current at Walla Walla of the discovery of new and rich mines near Pierce City, Idaho.

Persons connected with the late Montana Post are about to start a paper at Deer Lodge, to be called the Sentinel.

Lieut. Wann, who is appointed to relieve Dr. Newell at Lapwai Reservation, passed through Boise City on the 7th inst.

A fire occurred at Blackfoot City, Montana, on the 28th June, which laid nearly the whole place in ashes. Loss upwards of $40,000.

A man named John Weaver was arrested at Walla Walla, last week, charged with maliciously shooting a horse belonging to S. M. Wait.

There are incendiaries in Helena. A large number of business men at that place publish a card offering $2,000 reward for the detection of the gang.

The Tidal Wave wishes Train would go to Owyhee. The times, it says, are out of joint there, and Train could deliver a discourse to suit the occasion.

A man named Woods murdered a man named Duffey, at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 4th instant. Duffey had a half breed daughter, concerning whom some difficulty had arisen between him and Woods. The murder was done with a knife, the unfortunate man being literally cut to pieces.

GENERAL News ITEMS.

The Mormon preachers are having much success among the Sheffield (England) workingmen, and will probably bring over a large colony soon.

The Democrats in Alabama claim that all their candidates for Congress were original Union men with one exception, and his disabilities have been removed.

Hon. William Windom, of Minnesota, being a candidate for the United States Senate, in place of Mr. Norton, has withdrawn from the contest for the nomination for Governor of his State. His friends will support Judge Austin, of St. Peter, for Governor.

The whole world on the first of last January had 109,177 miles of railway in operation—and a few years, bounded by existing lives, comprise the history of this extraordinary development of the means of inter-communication. The appointment of completed railroads is greatly in favor of the United States, and illustrates the readiness of our people to seize and use, in their utmost extent, all the means of national progress.

Boot and shoe making is a great business in Philadelphia. A careful estimate made in 1857 showed the value of boots and shoes produced there annually to be about five millions of dollars, being in excess of the value of the production at Lynn, Massachusetts, the great headquarters of the Yankee boot and shoe trade. Still the cheap work of the New England makers was in such demand in that market that the sales of the wholesale dealers in Philadelphia annually amounted to ten millions of dollars of Yankee make alone, and the aggregate trade of both home and eastern make at fifteen millions of dollars.

This is an age of progress. In Owen county, Kentucky, for instance, a grand jury last month presented an aged woman of that place on a charge of being a witch—which she says that she is not. It is alleged that she cast an evil eye upon her neighbor's cattle, so that they sickened and died by the score, and, further, that she so affected the waters of the wells upon which she looked that all who partook of them languished and eventually followed their fathers to dream-land. Such an unmitigated set of fools as these jurors were born out of time. They should have flourished a century or two ago. As it is, they have lived too long to have learned a little.

The Exodus for America.—The London News says: Are we witnessing the beginning of an English exodus? Some prophets of evil have long foretold that some day our laborers would find the way the Irish peasantry found to prosperity and independence, and that when they did so an exodus would begin. Whatever be the explanation of the fact, the increase of emigration from Liverpool is becoming almost alarming. If in a single week nearly 7,000 persons can find means to set out on a journey to the Western World, it is at least clear that a movement is in progress which needs no special government aid to keep it going. But it is very doubtful whether this emigration touches the classes who are supposed to need it most. It is not the agricultural laborer, nor the hereditary pauper of the towns who is hurrying to Liverpool with his face to the west. It is altogether another class. Probably of the persons who crowded the ten steamers which left Liverpool last week were from the great cities and the manufacturing towns of England and Germany. Their emigration is the late result of the commercial panic. "There is little to earn and many to keep," and the more energetic earners are pushing to other markets with their labor. Probably so far as it has yet gone, the movement is a beneficial one, but it will be beneficial just in proportion as it is spontaneous. It is a natural movement of the population which may be anxiously watched by patriotic statesmen, but should be neither encouraged nor checked. Many merchants and manufacturers are already alarmed by it, and though we see little in it to cause alarm, nothing which threatens us with an exodus of labor, we can well see that it would be infinitely to the advantage of the country to find some means of giving these enterprising spirits a career at home.

Climates on Human Life.—In our country we hold all climates, finding our India in the lines of home latitude. In the North men of hard-worked brains die suddenly. In the Southern States the liver, usually deranged early, keeps men ill, bilious and long lived. In California, in Nevada, on the Pacific coast, a wondrous atmosphere sustains even those who live fast in the highest health, till at a given age they die almost without warning. There and here men watch their neighbors go, and silently count who will be called the next.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

DATES TO JULY 13.

Washington News.

Washington, July 12.—S. S. Goulding, of this city, is appointed Consul to Hong Kong.

The President will return in ten days.

Governor-elect Walker, had a lengthy interview with the President to-day. His presence at the White House has created much attention.

The Internal Revenue Department has received information of the conviction at Williamsport, Pa., of Martin Bellmire and Saltman, charged with violation of the revenue laws in relation to distilling. They are two of the most wealthy men in that part of the State, and the largest distillers. Both were sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary, and are now in confinement. Their conviction will have a good effect on small distillers who violate the law.

The State Department has issued a circular advising citizens having claims against the Mexican Republic, to forward them promptly to that Department, for the consideration of the Commissioners appointed to examine and decide on them. The claims will be argued before the Commission by J. Hashton, at the expense of the Government. Claimants are requested in every case to furnish the Department with satisfactory proof first, that they are citizens of the United States; second, the time when the claim arose; third, the present owners of the claim; fourth, the name and address of the person authorized to act for the claimants, and to correspond with the Department on the subject.

To-day about fifty citizens of New Jersey paid their respects to Secretary Roberson. Several complimentary speeches were made. In the course of the remarks by Secretary Roberson he said the policy by which the rebellion was finally subdued was the policy of action rather than of profession, so the policy of the present administration must be judged by fruits. With no startling announcement, no profession of splendid policy, we must admit the administration of General Grant prefers quietly, yet persistently and without reserve, to commend itself to the intelligence of the people, and acting in harmony with the other branches of the Government the Executive department hopes to be able in the fullness of time to present a country restored in all its parts, its credit re-established, its industry reinvigorated, and through all channels a National prosperity, with its honor untarnished at home and abroad.

Judge Dent has written a letter giving permission to use his name for any position before the National Union Republican Convention in Mississippi, and approving the platform adopted at Jackson, June 23.

The petition of Col. Yerger praying for a writ of habeas corpus to take him from before the military commission, was presented to Chief Justice Chase to-day. The Chief Justice received the application and fixed Wednesday morning for hearing the argument in the Supreme Court rooms. Attorney General Hoar will represent the Government. The point to be determined is whether the clause in the reconstruction acts permitting military commissions to try persons accused of crime is constitutional. This will be the only point on the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts which the question raises.

Washington, July 13.—A special says that the National Intelligencer office was offered for sale to satisfy the claim for rent by the owners of the building.

Admiral Dahlgren will soon be relieved as head of the Ordnance Bureau. Probably he will be ordered to the command of one of the navy yards.

Senator Sumner writes, taking decided grounds with the Administration on the Cuban question, holding that the neutrality laws must be enforced and that the insurgents are not yet entitled to recognition. He also says that the people of New England sustains his views on the Alabama question, that we had better let the claims rest awhile.

The Secretary of State has been addressed in regard to the new Atlantic cable, proposing to land in Massachusetts. Secretary Fish takes the same ground as the Attorney General, that while the cable may be landed it cannot be operated except by consent of Congress.

The President, during Gov. Walker's interview, yesterday, is said to have expressed himself well satisfied with the result in the Virginia election. He will probably direct General Canby to convene the Legislature at an early day.

Clapp appointed an apprentice at the Government printing office, yesterday, contrary to the constitution of the Typographical Union, and a strike resulted. He intends to appoint other apprentices.

Secretary Boutwell has peremptorily refused Dr. Mary Walker a position in the Treasury Department.

Washington, July 12.—Gov. Pease, of Texas, had a long interview with the President to-day in reference to affairs in that State. The Governor urged the fixing of the election of Texas at an early day because if delayed until November it will be detrimental to the agricultural interests of the State.

New York, July 13.—A riot occurred in the Bowery last evening between a party of Orangemen who had been celebrating the battle of the Boyne, and some Catholic spectators. The melee became general at one time, but the police managed to restore quiet after twenty or thirty persons were injured; none seriously.

Accountants have been busy recently counting the assets of the Sub Treasury in this city on the occasion of the installation of Gen. Butterfield as Assistant Treasurer. The currency notes and gold pieces have all been counted, dollar after dollar, and the gold bars weighed. The footing up amounts to $102,727,648 29.

One of Col. Ryan's Cuban command escaped from the encampment on Gardiner's Island, with two or three others, who became discontented with the way things were arranged, and came to this city. The men say they have been generally enjoying themselves on Gardiner's Island, but ill feeling has been engendered between Col. Courter and a portion of the recruits from Virginia, owing to the Colonel's political sentiments. Ryan and Courier secrete themselves at night, and place guards around the island to give warning of the approach of suspicious vessels.

Several vessels arrived in the lower bay with yellow fever. They hail from Rio Janeiro and Cuban ports.

Chicago Dispatch.

Chicago, July 13.—An excursion party of 40 distinguished railroad men left here this morning on a special train of the Kansas Pacific Road. L. B. Boomer, the Chicago bridge builder, met the Board of Directors of the Leavenworth Bridge Company yesterday, when satisfactory arrangements were concluded for the immediate construction of the bridge over the Missouri at that point. The work will begin on both sides of the river this week. The Bulletin says that as soon as the gauge in the Missouri Pacific Railroad is reduced to correspond with the other roads in this section, through mails for the Missouri and the Gulf and Hannibal and St. Josephs mails will be made up in this city instead of Kansas, as heretofore, the trains coming through to Chicago via the bridge at Kansas City to Cameron and Quincy, without change or delay.

Chicago, July 14.—New York specials say that twelve prominent capitalists of that city have undertaken to complete the work begun by Virginia of building a railroad from Richmond to Washington, and thence to the Ohio river. A party of engineers have just been over the route and pronounce it entirely practicable. Two or millions are wanted for the enterprise. Three millions have already been raised.

The friends of the English Cable interest say that the Government will send a revenue cutter to Duxbury to prevent the landing of the French Cable and its junction with Massachusetts. The ocean telegraph company's lines are beyond the Government's jurisdiction. The company's cable is ready for submersion whenever desired.

Delmonico was arrested yesterday and fined one hundred and fifty dollars, for selling cigars in glass cases without the proper stamps. A clause has been discovered in the revenue law requiring stamps on boxes, even if the cigars have paid full duty. About twenty cigar dealers have been arrested and fined. It is understood that warrants are out for one thousand more in New York. The cigar dealers are greatly excited over the matter.

Pennsylvania.

Scranton, Pa., July 10.—The Delaware Lackawanna & Western Company's Foundry was burned last evening. Loss, $50,000. A fire damp explosion occurred in the Empire Colliery, near Wilkesbarre, to-day. Eight men were injured, but it is thought none fatally.

Rahway, July 12.—The through train from New York to Washington was thrown from the track by collision with a hand car near the Susquehanna river last night. BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Herald special from Paris says a meeting of the Ministers of the Privy Council was held to-day in order to discuss the Emperor's message to the National Assembly, which organizes on Monday, when the left Centre will present its policy. Rouher will read the Emperor's message, which concedes the demand of the left Centre with regard to the autonomy of the Assembly. As yet, no change has been effected in the Ministry.

The London Times, in an article on the Russian progress in the east, regards the absorption of the Petty Musselman States by Russia as beneficial to the world, but says her presence in Asia must be consistent with the maintenance of British authority in India. When the security of our Power in India is felt, all fear of Russia is dissipated and both countries may unite in the development of the vast regions committed to their care.

FROM THE NORTH.

Seattle, July 12.—On Friday morning the steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived here from Olympia with the following gentlemen on board: Thos. H. Canfield, general agent of the North western Pacific Railroad; Capt. Ainsworth, President of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company; Senator Corbett, of Oregon, and George Francis Train and a number of Civil Engineers and eastern capitalists, accompanied by several officials and prominent men of the Territory. After a short stoppage the steamer proceeded down the Sound, calling at each port. About 1 o'clock Saturday morning the steamer reached Victoria, and at daylight the party found themselves in close proximity of the British gunboat Forward, the guns of which bore directly on the steamer. Amid the confusion on shore, the party landed, and after a short stay returned on board and left on their return trip. The excitement on shore was caused by the presence of George Francis Train who, it was rumored, was going to capture the island. About four o'clock Saturday evening, the steamer reached our wharf and the party landed. Several of the gentlemen started for the coal fields of Lake Washington and various points of interest. At 9 o'clock a meeting was held at the pavilion, which was addressed by George Francis Train, Senator Corbett and Mr. Canfield, on the future of the Territory. About 2 o'clock Sunday morning, the steamer sailed for Olympia. Mr. Canfield and a party of Engineers, capitalists and histriographers, will return to the Eastern States over the proposed route of the Northern Pacific Railroad.
